FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 5/29/90

On May 24, 1990, a search was conducted of the surface of the public street identified as the 3400 block of Park Boulevard, Oakland, California. The area to be searched was divided into sections or quadrants. The items located in quadrant B, lane 3 were marked noting the approximate location from the blast site and placed in box 9 for identification.

Quadrant B, lane 3 was searched by Sergeant [redacted] Oakland Police Department, Supervisory Special Agent [redacted] and Special Agent [redacted] of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. A total of 80 items were recovered.

Attached to and made a part of this document, for purposes of identification, is a copy of the Oakland Police Department Property Record, dated May 24, 1990, R. D. Number 90, consisting of eight pages and identifying the 80 recovered items.
